I remember that some discussion on the general principles of these remittances took place at the time and a perusal of the papers will be useful in this case. The case is not difficult & can be disposed of on its merits but decision of such cases without reference to precedents may result in conflicting decisions. Please resubmit the case with the papers referred to above.

To

K.R. Srinivasa Iyengar Esq., M.A.,

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

General and Revenue Department.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that Mr.T.Parmasiva Iyer who is now in the furlough period of the combined leave granted to him from the 24th September 1913, has sent an application for remitting to his son in England a sum of £18/- at the privileged rate of 1s.6d. per Rupee allowed for family remittances to Europe.

2. Under Article 478 of the Mysore Service Regulations, furlough allowances, if payable, in England are calculated at the rate of 1s.6d. the rupee, and no question of family remittances during furlough therefore arises in that case. But in the case now under reference the leave allowance is paid in India and in Rupees. There is nothing in the original orders of Government sanctioning the concession of the privileged rate of exchange for Europe family remittances to Mysore State Officers which denies it to Officers on leave. But as Government have considered it necessary in the case of Officers on privilege leave to convey special sanction for showing the concession to them, express orders of Government extending the concession to Officers on furlough are necessary for purpo-
